* Breakdown of visitors by trades will be promptly reported after the exhibition.

On the first day of the H.C.R.2022 --- for the first time in 4 years --- we were back to East Halls and were able to welcome many visitors who have looked forward to attending the in-person exhibition.
At exhibitors' booths, there were exhibitors and visitors having conversations, and various hands-on experience sessions and seminars were busy with a lot of participating visitors.

In addition, we presented the appreciation certificates to those exhibitors who participated for the 15th time this year.

There will be more seminars and programs you can participate on the 2nd day as well.
We are looking forward to welcoming you at the East Exhibition Halls!
